

SPELLINGS

Test: 11/11/24

The Suffix '-ous'

Rule: If the root words end in e, drop the e when you add 'ous': fame + ous = famous.

If it ends in ge, you must keep the e:

advantage + ous = advantageous

If it ends in y, change the y to an i and add ous: vary + ous = various

Some words that end in our change to or when you add ous: glamour + ous = glamorous

curious

adventurous

dangerous

courageous

luxurious

mountainous

poisonous

glamorous

hilarious

jealous

outrageous

victorious

SPELLINGS

Test: 18/11/24

The Suffix Spelt 'sion' with a Buzzing Sound.

Rule: If a word ends with a buzzing sound, it is mostly spelt '-sion.'

vision

collision

division

revision

confusion

illusion

fusion

television

decision

erosion

invasion

diversion

SPELLINGS

Test: 25/11/24

The Suffix Sounding Like /shun/ Spelt -tion

Rule: If a word ends with a /shun/ sound, it is mostly spelt -tion.

action

addition

invention

location

reflection

mention

emotion

audition

vibration

option

population

solution

SPELLINGS

Test: 02/12/24

The Suffix Sounding Like /shun/ Spelt -sion

Rule: When the ending follows an -n or -r, it's often spelled -sion, especially if the word is related to one that ends in -d or -se.

expansion

immersion

tension

extension

occasion

suspension

convulsion

infusion

pension

repulsion

version

comprehension

SPELLINGS

Test: 09/12/24

The Suffix Sounding Like /shun/ Spelt -ssion

Rule: When the ending follows an -ss or -mit, it's often spelled -ssion.

admission

omission

emission

mission

impression

confession

expression

obsession

possession

discussion

passion

session

SPELLINGS

Test: 16/12/24

The Suffix Sounding Like /shun/ Spelt -cian

Rule: Spellings that sound like /shun/ and end in '-cian' are often words linked to professions and careers.

electrician

politician

musician

optician

physician

statistician

mathematician

dietician

magician

clinician

technician

beautician

