JOURNALISM

In our school we have a mural inspired by a student named Olly Stevens. It shows many things that were important to him, including music, art and being a buddy.

Year 5 have finally got their turn to go swimming because they were deprived of it last year. Does this mean that this year's Year 4 will get to do it or will they have to wait?

In Year 6 a few students have been complaining about the amount of football days, one person said, "Year 5 and 6 should have more football days and should be able to play at break too!"

Another thing about football is that various teams have been competing in a kid's champion's league including some children from our school.

A Year 6 child suggests, "There should be a rota where everyone can have a turn going in the Nature Area."

Recently, a food inspector came to Emmer Green and asked children about the school dinners. A girl in Year 5 said, "My favourite school dinner is the Greek pitta with that Greek dip that I can never remember the name of. My favourite pudding is either the oaty cookie or the apple crumble with custard." The food inspector seemed pretty happy so we are hoping the school gets a good rating.

Acorns have recently changed their menu on Thursdays now there are Chicken burgers and Vegan ones if you are Vegan. This has replaced the tomato pasta and has been hugely appreciated by the children; it is a popular choice.

School Council have recently been elected and in case you didn't know who they are, here is a list of them:

3. Pour the cooled chocolate mixture over the eggy mixture and fold with a metal spoon.
4. Sieve over the flour and cocoa powder and fold in until fudge like. Stop before you want to.
5. Pour into the greased and lined tin and cook for 30-35_{mins}. In the end you will get a fudgy, yummy delicious set of brownies. YUMMY!

BOOKS

Books are a very important part of Emmer Green, we have them in all the classrooms from years Reception all the way to year 6, we even have our own library where all the juniors can go to get books if they want to and if the library is quiet enough some people can stay and read for fun! Here is a list of books for each year with a challenging read:

Year 6 – Challenging read: The Hunger Games

Year 5 – Challenging read: A Series of Unfortunate Events

Year 4 – Challenging read – Harry Potter

Year 3 – Challenging read – A Diary of a Wimpy Kid

Year 2 – Challenging read – Dog Man

Year 1 – Challenging read – The Grunt and the Grouch

These are much loved books throughout the year groups that can be challenging but can also completely improve their reading over all.

BUSH CRAFT!

Hi there! An anonymous reporter here to tell you something about Bush craft.

Bush craft is the skill that can help you survive in the wilderness. Today I will be explaining Fatwood Fatwood is wood from a pine tree that is full of resin(sap) it's very useful because it burns for a long time. Unfortunately, it is very hard to light but like I said before it is extremely useful.

NATURE NEWS

1st - Today we are sad to inform you that at lunch a dead squirrel was discovered in the nature area Mrs Bhagalee has buried it and planted a tree on the grave.

2nd - There is an eco-team created by Mrs Golledge. They will try and help make sure the school does not throw away too much plastic.

3rd - Newsround recently reported the birth of a pigmy hippo. This is a vital part of pigmy hippo conservation as this species are endangered.

4th - An anonymous reporter would like to report that they have built 2 birdboxes and helped build a bug hotel and has commented that they may build an owl box.

5th - If you see a capybara, it is from a zoo. Cinnamon escaped a couple of weeks ago.

6th - It is starting to become autumn and many animals including badgers, squirrels, rabbits and terrapins will be hibernating, so as we get deeper into autumn you will see fewer squirrels.

7th - This is the last paragraph of nature news and the most important. Now many of you find zoos cruel so we have got some comments: an anonymous student said it depends if they take animals from the wild without them having any injuries. that is his idea of cruel.

THAT IS ALL LADIES AND GENTLEMEN. SEE YOU NEXT TIME

Sports

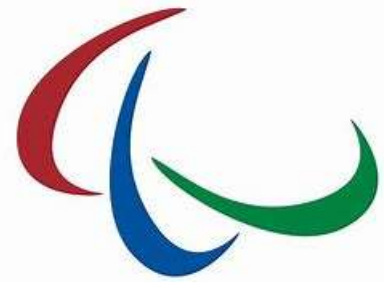

Olympics and Paralympics

The Olympics and Paralympics were an absolute success for Great Britain. At the end of the Olympics, Great Britain came 7th with China coming 1st, USA coming 2nd, Japan 3rd, Australia 4th, France 5th and Netherlands 6th. Some of the great things that happened at the Olympics are Keely Hodgkinson finally winning gold at the women's 800m. The first ever women's kite sailing went to Ellie Aldridge. Tom Daley won his fifth and final Olympic medal for men's synchronised 10m platform diving with Noah Williams. At the end of the Paralympics, Great Britain came 2nd with China coming 1st before them! Some great moments in the Paralympics: in wheelchair tennis, GB's Alfie Hewett earned a gold and silver medal double in the final days of the Paralympics in tennis.
